

Mittelstand & Regional Markets Committee Event
13 May 2026, 10am -12pm, SGC

Australia Market Briefing: Strategic Insights for German companies in Singapore

Speaker Profiles

Marko Walde

Marko Walde is the Executive Director of the German-Australian Chamber of Industry and Commerce, based in Sydney, Australia, since January 2024. Before taking on his current position, Marko served from 2011 to 2023 as the Delegate of German Industry and Commerce in Vietnam, also responsible for Cambodia, Laos, and Myanmar.

For over ten years, Marko was a board member of the German Business Association in Vietnam and actively contributed to promoting German economic interests in the country.

Marko studied law at the University of Rostock and, after completing his legal clerkship at the Higher Regional Court of Hamburg, held the position of Deputy Managing Director of the German-Polish Chamber of Industry and Commerce in Warsaw (Poland) from 2002 to 2007. In the following four years, Mr. Walde served as the Managing Director of the German-Romanian Chamber of Industry and Commerce in Bucharest (Romania).

Steven Zabeti

Steven is an award-winning Partner at Accru Felsers specialising in external auditing, financial reporting, IPOs, and M&A. With extensive experience across Asia and Europe, he proactively assists overseas organisations with accounting and taxation when expanding their operations. A multilingual expert, Steven delivers practical solutions and strategic growth insights for businesses navigating the market in Australia.

Fabian Hoffmann

Fabian Hoffmann is the Principal Solicitor of Boettcher Law, an Australian firm with offices in Sydney, Canberra and Frankfurt am Main that specialises in advising German-speaking businesses on their Australian operations. Admitted in New South Wales and the Australian Capital Territory, he holds law degrees from the Australian National University and Bielefeld University. His practice focuses on arbitration and complex commercial law, advising German Mittelstand clients and regional headquarters on commercial contracts, cross-border transactions and disputes in Australia. He brings to this work prior executive experience gained in Singapore.